Intersections 2023 is the sixth annual conference of the Finance and Society Network (FSN), hosted in association with Cosmopolis Centre for Urban Research at Vrije Universiteit Brussel. With financial support from the Regional Studies Association. The conference will take place in the D Building on VUB Main Campus Etterbeek, Pleinlaan 2, 1050 Elsene, Brussels.

Finance and Society Network is a cross-disciplinary research network dedicated to fostering new perspectives on the social character of contemporary finance. Its core functions are to collate and distribute relevant announcements through a regular newsletter; to facilitate the organisation of events, including an annual conference; and to provide routes to publication through a peer-reviewed journal and book series. financeandsocietynetwork.org

Finance and Society is an open-access journal dedicated to interrogating the central role of finance in contemporary society. It offers a unique cross-disciplinary platform, publishing theoretical and empirical research in which the socio-political character of finance and the society-wide implications of financialisation take precedence. More information about the aims and scope of the journal are available at financeandsociety.ed.ac.uk

Currencies is a book series with Stanford University Press, aimed at rethinking the core institutions and categories of financialised capitalism. Situated at the intersection of economics, the humanities, and the social sciences, its remit spans conceptually driven historical and empirical studies, genealogies of economic ideas and institutions, and work that employs new or unexplored theoretical resources to rethink key categories and themes. http://www.sup.org/books/series/

Cosmopolis a research centre within the Department of Geography of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel. Dedicated to research and teaching in geography, spatial planning, and urban design, Cosmopolis is committed to pursuing both academic and practice-relevant research. Cosmopolis actively engages policy makers, governments, citizen networks, and other urban partners to transform knowledge into action. cosmopolis.research.vub.be

Regional Studies Association is a learned society concerned with the analysis of regions and regional issues. In collaboration with the Global Network on Financial Geography, it has recently launched Finance and Space, a new journal that aims to publish and promote state-of-the-art research on diverse aspects of the spatial production of finance and the financial production of space. www.regionalstudies.org
